INSUFFICIENT AND UNEQUAL

An Old Hunter Gives a Dissenting Opinion on the Game Law

Is the present game law a protection to the game? as my friend says in the Star. Can you find more game now than you did five years ago? I don't think that you can and I dare say that in five more years a deer track will be hard to find, under the present law, as the game is destroyed more each year by the sportsman. I was informed by a sportsman in Ocala that during the past season he shot 1900 quail. That is more quail than a dozen farmers will ever kill, and yet every precaution is taken to see that no man should kill game out of season. How many hawks, skunks and wildcats does the sportsman kill? I venture to say that such fowl and varmints kill more game than the farmer. Do we expect the game to increase when the varmints are allowed to run at large? Let each county pay bounties for such things and then we will see the game multiply and not before. I am a hunter and I know the habits of all animals of Florida. We can't keep a pack of hounds to hunt three months in the year. The old cracker hunter will never destroy the game, but look out for the sportsman and varmints. Kill the varmints and you will protect the game. We won't kill something that we can make no use of and lug home on our backs for five or six miles. In the summer the bucks are fat and the does very poor and we never shoot the does in summer. Well, perhaps some would like to know how we could tell them from the bucks? Any old hunter can do this at sight. Don't once think that we are not in favor of a game law. We are, but I would not think that if I were to kill a buck out of season and made use of every pound of it and sold the hide for coffee, that I ought to pay $25 or go to jail, and I don't think that a good neighbor would report me. But we, the original Florida crackers, don't think it is right for any sportsman to kill 1900 quail. If that is allowed we can't get a quail to make soup after the chill has gone.

Let each county pay a bounty, not so much that one can make it a business, but enough to justify us in sending the scalp to the authorities. I'ming the scalp to the authorities. I hope that all interested in game will consider what I have said.

The Shoe and Hat Man

A HAYSEED MANAGER

The Star man, who usually writes up the shows, gave his tickets to other members of the staff last night and trusted to his "card" to get him in, as it had never failed him before. Manager Summers, who was on the door, evidently has no truck with the newspaper man, and turned him down. He told one of the ushers afterwards that he didn't think there was such a thing as a paper in Florida. Possibly his company has been playing so long in rural districts that he has forgotten the existence of the fraternity. Any way, his bull remained amid those pastoral scenes, as the one used on the stage last night was a paper article.

A THEATER PARTY

To Be Given the Most Popular Young Lady in Ocala January 5th

The Evening Star has decided to give a theater party. The party will be complimentary to the most popular young lady in Ocala and the lucky one will be Queen of the Star's Theater Party and will invite eleven of her friends to accompany her and make up the party of twelve.

The attraction that has been chosen for this important event is Mr. Leavitt's gorgeous spectacular production, "The Spider and the Fly," one of the best and highest classed attractions that has ever been booked in this city, carrying forty finished actors and elaborate special scenery. It appears on Saturday evening, January 5th. The Star has engaged twelve of the best reserved seats in the house for this occasion, to be occupied free of cost by the young lady receiving the greatest number of votes and her friends. Cut out the accompanying coupon, fill in with the name of the young lady of your choice and send to the Star office on the morning after the paper is issued. The result of the voting will be published daily. Preserve your coupons and send them in daily, by mail or messenger, and should you find that the coupon has been cut out of your paper when you receive it, please report same to this office.

The contest will close with the issue of January 3d and all coupons must be in this office by noon of the 4th, that the votes may be counted and the result of the contest announced that day, thus giving the winner an opportunity of inviting her friends for the next evening's party.
